

I respectfully urge the FCC to reject NAB petition 04-160. Satellite radio provides quality and variety that is not available on regular radio. When I need traffic and road information I don't want to wait for some loud mouth talk radio personality to shut up. Likewise, I don't want to listen to some fool trying to sell me something in a place that I just may be passing through.